(Special to The Herald.) Grand Encampment, Wyo., Aug. 29,-Mr. A. J. Vance, representative of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company of Salt Lake, was here hast week to report upon the district and the advisability of running a long distance telephone through this section. It is proposed to run a line from Salt Lake that would branch off from the Union Pacific at Rawlins and penetrate this camp and Battle Lake coming via Fort Steele and Saratogae following the line of the Wyoming Southern railroad. Telephonic or telegraphic communication with the outside world is now a painful necessity and there is little doubt but that the Rocky Mountain company will construct a line in a few months.
